

FISCAL NOTE

SB 1747 - HB 1287

March 30, 2005

SUMMARY OF BILL: Prohibits physicians from investing in radiologic equipment such as PET scans and MRIs unless there is a radiologist employed to read the results of such scans.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

MINIMAL

Assumptions:

- This bill will limit the investment privileges that physicians currently have with outside entities and comprehensive diagnostic radiological tests would be required to be read by a radiologist.
- This bill, as written, would have no fiscal impact on the Department of Health.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "James W. White". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "James" written in a smaller, more compact script than the last name "White".
